All wooden vivariums must be sealed before use, particularly when used for humid environments. Please seal all internal joints with a suitable silicone sealant.* Damage caused by water or moisture is not covered by our standard manufacturer's guarantee.
*Silicone sealant sold separately.

HabiStat products are manufactured to high quality standards and are covered against manufacturing defects under our standard manufacturer's guarantee. This guarantee does not cover damage caused by misuse, incorrect installation, accidental damage, water or moisture damage, normal wear and tear, or failure to follow the supplied instructions. Proof of purchase may be required when making a claim. This guarantee does not affect your statutory rights.
